Class: 10th

Worksheets for Summer Break

Lesson: Glimpses of India

Case Study – 1 (Based on "A Baker from Goa")

Read the case study carefully.

The Government of India has introduced several initiatives to preserve traditional occupations and local food cultures. In Goa, many traditional bakeries continue to produce bread using age-old techniques. Tourists often visit these bakeries to experience authentic Goan bread, known as pao. Although modern bakeries have become common, many families still value bread baked in traditional wood-fired ovens.

Answer the following questions.

1. Why do traditional Goan bakeries continue to remain popular despite modern bakeries?

- a) They produce cheaper products.
- b) They preserve authentic taste and cultural heritage.
- c) They only supply hotels.
- d) They use imported ingredients.

2. Which value is highlighted through the preservation of traditional baking?

- a) Competition
- b) Cultural heritage
- c) Urbanisation
- d) Industrialisation

3. How does the story "A Baker from Goa" emphasize the importance of preserving traditional occupations?

4. If you were a tourism officer in Goa, how would you promote traditional bakeries among tourists?

Case Study – 2 (Based on "Coorg")

Read the passage.

A travel company has launched an eco-tourism package to Coorg. Visitors are encouraged to stay in eco-friendly cottages, avoid plastic waste, participate in coffee plantation tours, and learn about Kodava culture. Local guides explain the importance of conserving forests and wildlife.

Answer the questions.

1. What is the main aim of eco-tourism?

- a) Increasing pollution      b) Conserving nature while promoting tourism
c) Building factories      d) Urban development

2. Which feature of Coorg attracts tourists the most?

- a) Desert landscape      b) Coffee plantations and natural beauty
c) Industries      d) Shopping malls

3. Explain how eco-tourism benefits both local people and the environment.

5. Imagine you are planning a visit to Coorg. Mention three responsible actions you would follow during your trip.

PROJECT-BASED QUESTIONS

Project 1: Heritage Occupations Survey

Visit your locality and identify one traditional occupation (potter, carpenter, baker, weaver, artisan, etc.).

Prepare a report including:

- History of the occupation
- Tools used
- Challenges faced
- Importance in society
- Suggestions for preservation
- Photographs/interview (if possible)

Project 2: Interview Project

Interview a local entrepreneur or traditional worker.

Prepare questions such as:

- How long have you been doing this work?
- What challenges do you face?
- How has technology changed your work?
- What advice would you give to young people?

Write a 300-word report.
